Mike Hartley Acquires Largest Fabricator and Distributor of Patterned Glass in North America

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – October 16, 2009 – Pittsburgh executive Mike Hartley, owner of Standard Bent Glass Corp, a leading custom bent and decorative glass manufacturer, and Global Security Glazing, a jointly owned security glass company with Standard Bent Glass, has announced the purchase of Coastal Glass Distributors in Charleston, S.C. with other key managers.

Coastal Glass Distributors is the largest patterned glass fabricator, distributor and warehouse for the architectural industry in North America. The acquisition is expected to be complete by Monday, October 19, and under Hartley’s ownership the company’s new name will be Coastal Glass Distributors, Inc. When Coastal Glass Distributors resumes operation at the plant in Charleston, it expects to bring an initial 75 jobs to the region.

“Adding Coastal Glass Distributions, Inc. to our company roster compliments the glass manufacturing capabilities of Standard Bent Glass and Global Security Glazing,” said Michael Hartley. “Our immediate goal is to re-start operations and ensure that the products are manufactured and shipped at the highest quality standards.”

Coastal Glass Distributors previously employed 135 and historically sales have been in excess of $20M.
